INTRODUCTION

This publication is prepared as a result of a demand from State nursery inspectors and others for the assembling and indexing of Federal plant quarantine regulations affecting the interstate shipment of plants, plant products, and other restricted articles.

The first part gives information as to the certificate, or permit, or marking requirements as summarized or quoted from the regulations.

The second part (pp. 21–23) is a list of the restricted articles inserted for the convenience of those interested in all interstate movement of particular commodities.

The last part (pp. 23–135) is a list of States and post offices showing what Federal plant quarantines apply to each post office in the United States.

METHOD OF USE

To find out what Federal quarantines, if any, are in effect on any particular shipment, proceed as follows: (1) Look up in the list of post offices, the office from which the article is to be shipped and note the quarantine numbers on the right. If the office is not given, refer to the quarantine numbers after the name of the State or at the end of the State list under "All other post offices * * *". (2) Turn to the key on extension page (p. 136), refer to the quarantines bearing the numbers just found, and if the article to be shipped is shown in the key, consult the summary of the quarantine, the page being shown in the key. (3) Since the destination of the shipment determines whether the restrictions apply, read the regulations carefully to learn the area under quarantine and, if necessary, check the destination in the post-office list to see whether it is within that area. Example: A nurseryman in Alabama wishes to ship barberry to North Dakota. Under Alabama he finds quarantines 38, 62, 63. The key shows that only no. 38 relates to barberry and that the summary is given on page 5. In the summary he finds that a Federal permit is required for shipping barberry (other than Berberis thunbergii) to 13 States including North Dakota. He also finds the address to which application for permit should be made.

STATE QUARANTINE REGULATIONS NOT INCLUDED

This synopsis is a companion paper to Miscellaneous Publication No. 80 entitled, "Summary of State and Territorial Plant Quarantines Affecting Interstate Shipments" revised April 1933. Miscellaneous Publication No. 80 includes only State and Territorial laws and regulations, while this synopsis includes only the Federal quarantines. In the case of Hawaii and Puerto Rico, however, both Federal and Territorial restrictions are given in Miscellaneous Publication No. 80 and are entirely omitted here.

The difference in arrangement between the two publications should, however, be carefully noted. In Miscellaneous Publication No. 80, the State requirements are listed under the State to which the shipment is to be sent. In this publication the Federal regulations are listed under the State from which the shipment is to be made.

UP-TO-DATE COPIES OF REGULATIONS SHOULD BE SECURED

Revisions of Federal plant quarantines are issued from time to time as conditions change. Such revisions in the case of the Japanese beetle and other quarantines have been needed annually in the past. It is anticipated that new editions of this synopsis will be issued from time to time as required, but it is obviously impracticable to publish a revision of the synopsis at the time of each quarantine amendment. The names and addresses of those interested will be, however, placed on file, on request, and new quarantine revisions and amendments will be supplied as issued.

Transportation companies and shippers should, therefore, consider this synopsis as accurate only as of the date shown. In addition to securing up-to-date copies of the synopsis, shippers should obtain complete copies of the regulations on the products in which they are interested, in order to have on file a full statement of the shipping restrictions and of the conditions under which permits or certificates are issued. The synopsis is not intended to be used independently of nor as a substitute for the quarantines and regulations, nor is it legally authoritative.

SUMMARY OF REGULATIONS

This portion of the publication consists of summaries and quotations of those parts of Federal plant quarantine regulations which will answer the question: "Are the plants or other articles in which the reader is interested allowed to be shipped to destination and, if so, is a permit or certificate required?" In order to determine the conditions under which a certificate may be secured, or the full wording of restrictions involved, it is necessary to consult the complete copy of the regulations, which will be supplied on request. There have also been omitted here, in addition to the conditions of certification, various other paragraphs necessary in the quarantine orders but not usually required by transit inspectors or transporting agencies to determine whether a shipment is permitted to be moved to the intended destination. These paragraphs relate principally (1) to the method of giving notice of the extension or reduction of regulated areas; (2) to the limitation of restrictions to regulated areas; (3) to the inspection of restricted articles in transit; (4) to shipments made for experimental or scientific purposes; (5) to the cancelation of permits and certificates; and (6) to such definitions as are not necessary for determining whether a particular shipment is allowed in interstate commerce. The quarantines proper on which these regulations are based are also omitted, as the restrictions with which this publication deals are essentially covered by the regulations summarized or quoted herein.

The following summaries are given in numerical order, using the serial numbers of the various Federal quarantines, shown in Contents.

LIST OF POST OFFICES IN REGULATED AREAS

The figures opposite each post office show the quarantines which affect interstate shipping from that post office. Each figure in the list is the designating number of the notice of quarantine involved. The letter "L" or "G" used with no. 45 indicates that the post office is within the lightly infested area, or the generally infested area, regulated under Quarantine No. 45. "L" or "H" used with no. 52 indicates that the post office is within the lightly infested area, or the heavily infested area, regulated under Quarantine No. 52. The words "noninfected" and "infected" with no. 63 indicate whether or not the State is designated in Quarantine No. 63 as infected with white-pine blister rust.

IMPORTANT: It will be noted that in many cases some of the post offices in the State are omitted. When a post office in question is not entered, turn to the close of the list for the State concerned and note the entry "All other post offices * * *."
